

Name. Eigil Jensen

Profession:: Manager at Survival Training Maritime Safety

Education: Mate and Master Certificate

STMS: 10 employees - permanently employed – 20 part-time employed

Amount of student per. year - Average 3.000

Wind turbine courses: Has been involved in wind turbine courses from the beginning of the offshore building up phase in Denmark.

Training Platform Stardos

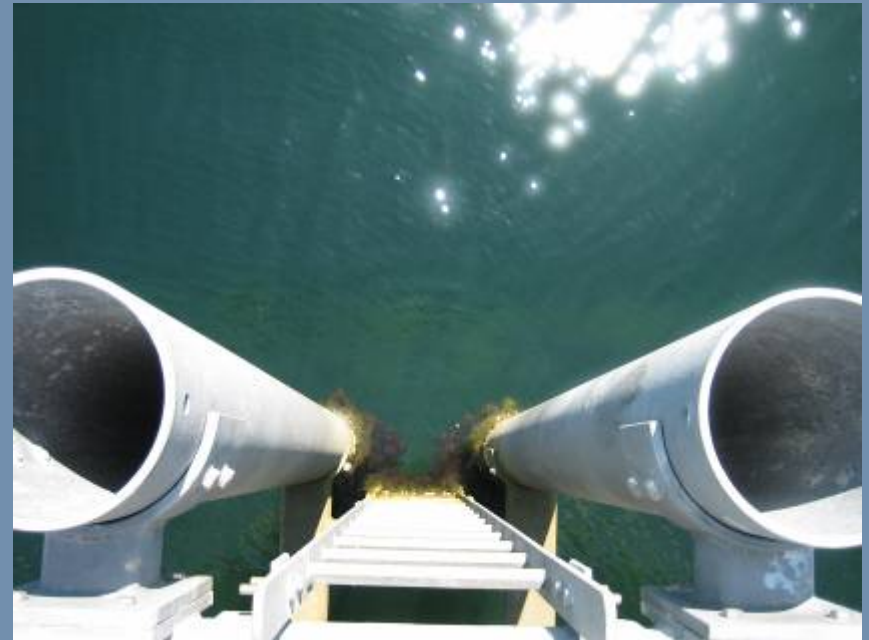

Training Platform Stardos

Wind turbine offshore make it necessary to transfer people to the working area without risks.

Areas with risks

Stretcher transfer from Wind Turbine

Horns Rev 23-05-04 016

Competence Based Training

- Skills and attitude can be measured against an approved standard
- International training: STCW training
- Tailor-made training for the individual company, making sure that the experience of the company will not be lost
- Crew will be able to develop safety awareness because of training and commitment from management

Man over board

Training situations

International Training

-  Train local but work global
-  Avoid twofold training and frustration among employees
-  Training is relevant for the job description and safety
-  Minimize costs for the involved parties
-  Training can be done in your native language or in English
-  Possibility for distance learning

Safety Awareness

-  An advantage for all involved parties
-  By commitment from all parts it will easy could be measured on the bottom line
-  Dynamic and developing
-  On step ahead
-  No blame culture will create a safe environment

Thank you for taking your time to listen to our presentation